Native Enterprise Booths give organizations the opportunity to educate the general public about services available to Native communities.

Indian Market Dates & Times

The SWAIA Santa Fe Indian Market dates and times are: Saturday, August 17th, 7:00am to 5:00pm and Sunday, August 18th, 8:00am to 5:00pm. Non-profit booths are required to set up both Saturday and Sunday during Indian Market.

Fees

Application Fee of $25.00 is due when applying. Upon acceptance to participate, the booth fee is $225.00. The fee must be received upon acceptance in order to insure your position.

Eligibility

Native Enterprises/Non-Profit groups and organizations that provide services to U.S. Federally recognized tribal members and First Nations of Canada are allowed to apply for a booth at Indian Market. Native Enterprises/Non-Profits must submit one copy of their 501c(3) status upon applying.

Booth Spaces & Location

Native Enterprises/Non-Profit booths are located outside at Cathedral Park in downtown Santa Fe, east of the Santa Fe Plaza. Booths are 10' x 10' (we supply canopy, poles and two chairs only. Native Enterprises/Non-Profits are required to bring their own internal set up including extra tables, chairs, signage, displays, etc.).

Sales Not Allowed

PLEASE NOTE: ABSOLUTELY NO SALES, DISPLAYS OF GOODS FOR SALE, OR TAKING ORDERS IS NOT ALLOWED. These booths are strictly intended for promotional purposes only. Absolutely no exchange of money for goods is allowed. We encourage you to have free hand outs to draw attention to your organization.

Costs

Payment of $225, booth fee, is due upon acceptance. Money Orders, Credit Cards, Business Checks only. Like all participants in Indian Market, all Non-Profit/Native Enterprises organizations are required to fill out the City of Santa Fe, Special Event License Application, as it is a City of Santa Fe requirement (PDF on SWAIA website).

MISREPRESENTATION OR VIOLATION OF SWAIA RULES & STANDARDS WILL LEAD TO DISMISSAL FROM INDIAN MARKET AND MAY AFFECT YOUR FUTURE STATUS. MONITORS WILL EVALUATE ALL BOOTHS DURING THE EVENT.

Signature indicates that your Non-Profit will comply with the rules set forth by SWAIA Indian Market booths at the 2019 Santa Fe Indian Market. I fully understand that No Sales will occur of any kind.
